EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The average daily population during the third quarter of 2012 (July-September) was down from the second quarter levels, closely matching the first quarter of this year in terms of the custody and jurisdiction populations. Monthly averages can fluctuate across the various types of criminally sentenced admissions and releases, with New Court Commitments and Expiration of Sentence to the Street representing the largest types for admissions and releases, respectively.

From October 2011 through September 2012:

- Admissions outpaced releases resulting in a cumulative increase of 186 inmates in the MA DOC jurisdiction population.
- Based on monthly averages, 45% of admissions were pre-trial detainees, 31% were criminally sentenced, and 24% were civil commitments. Release averages were 43% pre-trial detainees, 32% criminally sentenced, and 25% civil commitments.
- Among the criminally sentenced population, the cumulative difference between admissions and releases among females decreased by 27 inmates and decreased by 173 among males.
- The percent of criminally sentenced releases paroled to the street continues to fluctuate ranging these last 4 quarters from a low of 17% to a high of 25%, averaging 22% over the last year.
  - Compared to the last quarter of 2011, the percentage of female releases to the street via parole is still high; however it is still down from the first quarter of 2012 when it was 30%. The percentage has increased from the second quarter 2012 moving from 20% to 26%.
  - Fifty-seven percent of criminally sentenced males were released with some type of criminal justice supervision (parole and/or probation) during this quarter, staying consistence with 56% from last quarter.
- Civil commitment admissions averaged 214 per month while releases averaged 219 with an overall cumulative decrease of 53 civil commitments over the last year.
- Pre-trial detainee admissions averaged 395 per month while releases averaged 389 with an overall cumulative increase of 64 pre-trial detainees over the last year, mostly due to a large influx in July.
  - Female pre-trial detainees comprise the majority of pre-trial admissions at for this quarter at 64%, coming primarily from Essex (28%), Middlesex (25%), Worcester (22%), Norfolk (14%) and Plymouth (10%) counties.
  - Male pre-trial detainees, comprise 36% of pre-trial admissions, come primarily from Suffolk (56%) and Middlesex (29%) counties.
  - Over the last year, 3,075 female pre-trial detainees were admitted with 3,056 released and 1,662 male pre-trial detainees were admitted with 1,617 released.

Notes and Definitions

Note: Admission and Release data for this report was gathered in October of 2012. Numbers in this report may vary slightly from numbers in other reports due to the continuous updating of data and information in the Inmate Management System

Admissions

Inmates or detainees committed to a MA DOC facility as a “new court commitment”, “parole violator”, “transfer from other jurisdiction”, “probation violator”, “awaiting trial detainee”, a “civil commitment” or other admission through legal means.

Pre-Trial Detainee

An individual who is detained prior to trial, but not yet convicted of a crime to include male and female county detainees, male county detainees transferred to state facilities under Massachusetts General Law Chapter 276, section 52A, and federal detainees (both male and female).

Civil Commitment or “Civil”

The involuntary commitment of an individual via legal means to incarcerate an individual against their will.

Criminally Sentenced

An individual who has been found guilty of a criminal offense through legal means, and is required to be incarcerated.

Custody Population

An individual is considered to be in Massachusetts DOC custody when they are being held in a Massachusetts DOC facility.

Expiration of Sentence (Release)

An inmate is discharged from his sentence at the expiration of his term, less any statutory or earned good time. Statutory good time was eliminated for all offenses committed after June 30, 1994, due to the enactment of the “Truth in Sentencing” law. “Expiration of Sentence” releases include “Expiration to Street”, “Expiration to Out of State Sentence”, “Expiration to Federal Authority”, “Expiration to Immigration”, “GCD/EXP/REL to F&A/CC HOC Sentence”, “Expiration to Warrant”, “Expiration to From & After/CC at DOC”, and “Expiration to Civil Commitment”.

HOC

House of Correction, i.e. county jail.

Jurisdiction Population

An individual is considered to be under Massachusetts DOC jurisdiction when the Commonwealth has legal authority over the individual regardless of where the inmate is being held to include those incarcerated in Massachusetts DOC facilities as well as those housed in correctional facilities outside of the Massachusetts DOC (Massachusetts Houses of Correction, other state’s correctional facilities and the Federal Bureau of Prisons).

MA DOC

Massachusetts Department of Correction, i.e. state prison.

Parole (Releases)

Inmates released on parole are under the supervision of parole while in the community and may be re-incarcerated for violating the terms of their supervision. Unless otherwise specified, parole releases may include “Parole to Street”, “Parole to Out of State Sentence”, Parole to Federal Authority”, “Parole to Immigration”, “Parole to From & After HOC Sentence”, “Parole to Warrant”, “Parole to From & After DOC Sentence”, or “Parole to Civil Commitment”.

Probation

Probation is a court-ordered sanction placed on a person convicted of a crime. The offender is allowed to remain in the community under the strict supervision of a probation officer.

Release to Street

A release to street occurs when an inmate is released from the custody of the Massachusetts DOC by way of parole or discharge to the street. Conditions warranting a release to street include: Parole, Good Conduct Discharge (GCD), and Expiration of Sentence.

Releases

A release occurs when an inmate is released from the custody of the Massachusetts DOC by way of expiration of sentence, parole, a non-DOC release to other jurisdiction, a court release or other legal release from the custody of MA DOC.
